

GUY IANNELLO

Guy Iannello was a drug addict and dealer for over 20 years.

He was sentenced to life in prison at the age of 21. Guy lost his family, his money, and his many businesses.

In 1993 he asked Jesus into his heart. Guy felt an immediate encounter with Jesus Himself. He was set free from drugs and alcohol instantly and filled with the Spirit of God.

Guy was re-married to his wife and they have been serving the Lord for 20 years now. He holds a Bachelors Degree in Theology and a Doctorate in Divinity. He has held many positions including:

- Volunteer Counselor/Teacher at Bridges of America
- Pastor of Fresh Start Substance Abuse Program
- Presently Pastor of True Ministries Church
- Director of the Total Freedom Program
- Assistant Chaplain for Good News Jail & Prison Ministry.

Come and hear the compelling story of how God can change the life of one man to reach out to thousands for His Kingdom. "All I do now is for God and not for Guy"

"Thank You Jesus!"

We have so much to be thankful for every day. Even when we don't stop to think about it, our very next breath of air is a gift from our Heavenly Father, yet we take it for granted.

When we arise each morning to a brand new day and never consider the miracle that brought that day to us, we are short changing the greatness of God. Joyce Meyers Evangelist said last week on her show, "I don't have enough faith to be an Atheist. Look around at all the trees, flowers, birds, and nature. How can you see the birth of a new creature and not believe in God?"

I was speaking with a guest speaker's mother on the telephone recently about serving others. She made a comment that has stuck in my mind for the past week. "Many people miss church every Sunday on their way to the building." I felt that one statement spoke volumes of truth and has made me examine my own actions daily since.

Am I giving enough for The Kingdom? Is there more I can do every day? Art Manning offers us his monthly writings "Solomon's Porch", Brother Bruce and his wife Cherry offer us their daily spiritual feedings in "From the Sanctuary", I offer up daily gifts of wisdom and bible verses on my Face Book page. There are so many things we can do to lift the spirits of the people around us and these things cost no money to speak of. Reach out to someone around you and let them know they are loved.

Blessings,

Pastor Tom
